DEDICATION

The Board of Editors would like to dedicate this Volume of the Western New England Law Review to the memory of Dean Donald Dunn.

In his three decades at the School of Law, Don Dunn was both a contributor and a recorder of our history. From the makeshift law library he took over 1973 in the Our Lady of Lourdes gym to the thriving law center he left at the turn of the millennium, Don was an important part of our evolution. His contributions to legal research and scholarship, library science, and American Bar Association study abroad programs have impacted legal education around the globe. Above all, Don has left a lasting mark on the memories of the many colleagues and students who were fortunate to share time at the School of Law with him. We are honored to dedicate Volume 30 of the Western New England Law Review to the legacy of the man we called dean, alumnus, professor, librarian, scholar, and friend.
